II. OPERATIONS

A. Monitorial

1. Upon request from BBC, the bureau extended its responsibility for GDR I coverage to the period 0500-0600 GMT, adding an agricultural program, commentary, and newscast to its schedule.
2. On 28 June GDR regional transmitters revised their normal evening schedules, initiating morning broadcasts from 0505 to 0900 GMT, thus increasing normal broadcasting time by three hours. A full check of the three regional stations intelligible at the bureau--Dresden, Leipzig, and Weimar--was made starting 28 June. Results have been pouched separately to headquarters.
3. Updating of German Freedom Station 904, Deutsche Soldaten-sender, and Radio Volga schedules was completed at request. Additional unscheduled monitoring included a watch on Ulbricht's return from a tour of the Soviet Union, special coverage of two Erhard press conferences, and speeches by West German leaders in Bonn and Berlin on German Unity Day 17 June.
